DARTMOUTH COLLEGE

Dartmouth and Mount Holyoke event at the Katonah Museum of Art

...the evening of October 29th in Katonah, New York. Gary Ryan is helping to organize. John Stomberg, the new Director of the Hood, is speaking on the Matisse exhibition that he helped curate while at Holyoke that will have just opened at the Museum. She is in touch with the College about publicizing, but was also going to try to work a dinner in Katonah for 85s after the post lecture reception. She will send details some time during the week of September 5th.

"[T]hat old September feeling, left over from school days, of summer passing, vacation nearly done, obligations gathering, books and football in the air ... Another fall, another turned page: there was something of jubilee in that annual autumnal beginning, as if last year's mistakes had been wiped clean by summer."

— Wallace Stegner, Angle of Repose

Dartmouth Partners in Community Service (DPCS) in the news...

Dartmouth News is featuring a story on the Boston Community Health Internship Program. Thank you to all who add to your Class of '85 dues payments each year to help fund our Class Projects! Among other things, our class helps to fund unpaid internships like these for current Dartmouth students thanks to your generosity:

Student Interns Get Real-World Public-Health Training

Twelve students spent the summer in Boston on the front lines of public health. As participants in a 10-week program sponsored by Dartmouth Center for Service in partnership with Dartmouth Partners in Community Service (DPCS), they interned at community health centers and other nonprofit organizations, serving the city's most vulnerable populations--people living on the streets or in shelters, refugees, and low-
